

	Freshman	Sophomore	Junior	Senior	Graduation and Beyond
Take the Right Classes	UCOL 101; ENGL 101 & 102 BIOL 200A, 200B MATH 108, 109 or 111 CHEM 200, 201, 202, 210, 211, 212 Review core & other requirements in the UG catalog registrar.siu.edu	CMST 101 BIOL 305 ZOO 215, 220 Check out the online registration tutorial	Continue working on upper level course work. ZOO 300/400	Finish all major requirements. Remember you must have 42 hours at the 300/400 level
Get Good Advice	Meet with academic advisor: College of Science 618-536-5537 Apply for scholarships: scholarships.siu.edu zoology.siu.edu	Meet with academic advisor: College of Science 618-536-5537 Talk to professionals in the field and ask questions	Meet with academic advisor: College of Science 618-536-5537	Meet with academic advisor: College of Science 618-536-5537 Confirm you are on track to graduate and apply for graduation	RESEARCH TECHNICIAN CHILDREN'S ZOO CURATOR
Apply What You Learn	Subscribe to the Smithsonian , Discover , ScienceDaily , or National Wildlife magazines	Volunteer your time tutoring or mentoring those who need help in Chemistry, Biology or Physics courses	Look into possible internships at a zoo or in an animal program	Become a senior tourist and tour future science students around specifically labs and/or any science related site	ZOO ANIMAL ATTENDANT PARK RANGER
Connect with Peers	Join the Wildlife Society and Zoology Club or participate in the Evo-Lunch .	Get involved in Darwin Week . darwinweek.siu.edu	Become involved in research at the Center for Fisheries Aquaculture & Aquatic Sciences	Network and begin looking for references for jobs	ZOOKEEPER ANIMAL GROOMER
Think Globally	Join the Zoological Association of America (ZAA) or the American Fisheries Society (AFS)	Think about Study Abroad for a semester	Begin working on your resume and cover letter Network with other Zoology majors through social networking sites	If considering graduate or professional study, take the appropriate exam; if necessary	VETERINARIAN ASSISTANT